2011 Employee Recognition

In the December issue of What's New, we highlighted some of the attendees that were recognized at the Employee Recognition Dinner. Due to work schedules, not everyone could attend so we thought we'd share the entire list of employees recognized at the Steak Pit in November. Congratulations once again!

45 Years and Counting

Did you know... when Pat Waynert started at MMC 45 years ago, the average income was $6,900? A new car would set you back $2,650 and you could fill it up at 32 cents per gallon, The Houston Astrodome was being built. Ronald Reagan entered politics as governor of California. And "How the Grinch Stole Christmas" was adapted for television and aired for the first time ever on CBS. Since then, a lot of things have come and gone, but one constant remains: Pat Waynert working hard at MMC. While everyone deserves a congratulations, we wanted to send a special thanks to Pat for all of her years of service at MMC!

Happy Holidays from the Public Relations Department!
